

DEFENSE CLOSES IN THE NEWBERRY CONSPIRACY TRIAL

Case Will Probably be Given Jury Later
Part of Week

PAUL KING STILL SICK

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 10.—Except for such points as may be developed on the cross-examination of Paul King, the defense today closed its case in the Newberry election conspiracy trial. Only a brief rebuttal is in prospect for the government and Judge Clarence W. Sessions told the jurors that the long case "certainly was approaching its end so far as proof was concerned."

King's illness will in all probability prevent a session of the trial tomorrow.

The end of the defense was marked by two unique situations. First Frank C. Dailey offered in evidence portions of the King-Newberry correspondence which were marked as defense exhibits. Then James W. Helme, who told the jury at the start of the trial that he occupied a peculiar situation in the proceedings, testified for himself without assistance of counsel.

The man whom the Newberry counsel have said was "worked" to run against Henry Ford in the Democratic primary, had first government and then defense counsel on their feet objecting to his testimony. At times both sides were up and once Mr. Dailey and W. H. Eichhorn, special assistant attorney general, and James O. Murfin, and George E. Nichols of the defense put their heads together, examined an exhibit offered by Helme and unanimously objected.

Generally Judge Sessions allowed Helme to follow his own idea as to what to swear to and once when an exhibit was admitted over objection by Mr. Dailey and then not read despite Mr. Murfin's argument that it should be, the court said:

"Mr. Helme is running this testimony."

When he encountered adverse decisions, the combination of defendant-witness-attorney noted exceptions as gravely and formally as court procedure required. Once on cross-examination Mr. Murfin objected to a question by Mr. Dailey, but Helme waved him down saying:

"I have nothing to conceal."

Helme's direct testimony was in narrative form, reinforced by a diary.

He followed closely the statement of his case as outlined in his first address to the jury and in his argument for dismissal at the close of the government's case he emphasized that he had no dealings with the Newberry campaign committee and that William J. Mickel, charged with being the committee's emissary, told him that Grand Rapids, had started the movement to bring him into the movement. He said he never even saw one of the nominating petitions until they were introduced in the trial. Mickel telling him that the same Grand Rapids men were attending to that part of his campaign.

To support this explanation of his candidacy Helme introduced in evidence a telegram which he received signed by George R. Perry and R. V. McArthur, Grand Rapids democrats, the former being an ex-mayor of this city and McArthur chairman of the party's county committee.

On cross-examination he said: "Not until I came to Grand Rapids to be arraigned on this indictment did I learn from Perry that he never sent me such a telegram."

On cross-examination also Helme said none of his petitions had been circulated in his home town of Adrian. He then pronounced spurious a signature on one of the documents filed at Lansing and in another pointed out the name of a street which he said did not exist in Adrian.

Helme told the government that he never authorized E. V. Chilson, head of the Newberry speakers' bureau, to hire Frank M. Bovee to get signatures in Lansing nor Thomas Bigger, state boxing commissioner, to promise $25 to Ben Bush of Kalamazoo for 2500 signatures. Bovee and Bush both testified for the prosecution.

The afternoon session saw also the end of the Newberry-King correspondence, whose reading has taken the better part of three court days. This too brought an unique situation, government counsel reading to the jury communications which related that King had received a campaign contribution in August and that Charles Floyd had arranged thru army and navy commanders for collecting votes at Camp Custer and Great Lakes.

SOLON RUSHES ACROSS THE COUNTRY TO VOTE FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Breaks West Virginia Deadlock After Hurried Trip from California

(By The Associated Press)
CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 10.—The West Virginia legislature ratified the federal suffrage amendment late this afternoon. Final action on the amendment was taken by the senate in adopting the ratification resolution of the house of delegates by a vote of 15 to 14.

The vote of Senator Jesse A. Bloch of Wheeling, who made a hurried trip from California to Charleston to vote on the amendment was effectual in breaking the deadlock between pro and anti suffrage forces. Senator A. T. Montgomery was not permitted to vote, his seat having been declared vacant.

The final vote on the Anthony amendment was taken at 6:15 o'clock in the senate after one of the most dramatic sessions ever witnessed in either house. For several hours suffrage leaders and their opponents fought in an effort to gain a definite advantage. Each step was hotly contested—anti-suffrage forces determined to offset their opponents victory in keeping the legislature in session and the suffragists confident of gaining a majority to ratify by the vote of senator Bloch, who had rushed nearly across the continent to vote for ratification.

The senate declared vacant the seat of Senator A. R. Montgomery depriving him of the vote which could have defeated ratification. It took on the ratification resolution of the lower house, adopting it just one week after the senate's vote defeating its own resolution on the same subject.

Declares Suffrage Won
New York, March 10.—"Suffrage is won. The words are simple but they thrill as few words do or can." This was the encouraging conclusion of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association in a statement issued here on receipt of news that West Virginia had ratified the federal suffrage amendment. With West Virginia won and the Washington and Delaware legislatures meeting soon in special session the opinion expressed at national headquarters tonight was that "the struggle is over."

"People who have followed the course of woman suffrage from the outside with indifference or small understanding of what has been at stake," said Mrs. Catt, "will have no comprehension of the real meaning of the West Virginia victory carries to women. To us it means that the nation is won, that the seventy year struggle is over, that the women of America are enfranchised women."

WAGE NEGOTIATIONS ARE SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Negotiations between the railroad executives' committee and the union representatives of railroad wage demands, were suspended temporarily tonight.

Members of the executives' committee were understood to have pressed for a decision on the question of permanent headquarters for the board. They preferred either Chicago or New York.

U. S. OPERATION SHIPPING BUSINESS VERY PROFITABLE

Results in Net Income to Government of $16,493,990

PAYNE GIVES OUT FIGURES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Government operations in the shipping business resulted in a net profit of $16,493,990 up to last June 20, Chairman Payne today told the senate merchant marine committee making public for the first time state statistics covering the financial aspects of the board's transportation activities. This revenue does not include unpaid balances due from other government departments, he said, adding that the food administration owes the board about $15,000,000 and war department about $150,000,000.

On Feb. 1, he said, the board was operating 1,397 bottoms of 8,833,000 dead weight tons, including 1,044 steel cargo ships, 276 wooden vessels, 46 tankers and 16 refrigerator ships. A total of 158 companies, he said, held operating charters for vessels owned by the board.

Each of the eleven standard types of ships owned by the board can be duplicated in commercial yards at less than their cost to the board, Chairman Payne told the committee, submitting a table of comparative cost and selling prices for these types. The board's schedule of selling prices per ton, he said, is higher in every case than the estimated cost of reproduction at this time.

The sales department up to Feb. 21 had disposed of 197 ships for a total of $111,322,410, the chairman said.

Re-deliveries to former owners brought the receipts for ships to $192,390,631.07.

The active construction program of the emergency fleet corporation was said to comprise 2,321 ships with a total tonnage of 11,582,000. More than ten million tons have been delivered to date.

About five million tons of the total, Mr. Payne said, are oil burning. Not one cent will be asked of congress by the shipping board to complete its program. Chairman Payne said, since funds from operating and sale of ships will take care of expenditures of $107,000,000 for the next fiscal year. He reiterated that the government should get out of the shipping business as soon as possible and stay out.

Government operation of the present fleet, Mr. Payne did not consider very profitable, but the government had some cash from it.

Individual Americans, he said, could operate ships successfully at a profit, in competition with foreign owned vessels.

THREE FARMERS INSTANTLY KILLED

Bloomington, Ill., March 10.—Three farmers living in Freedom township, LaSalle county, were instantly killed and frightfully mangled this morning when the auto motor truck in which they were crossing the Rock Island road near Ottawa, Ill., was struck by two passenger trains passing in opposite directions.

The dead are: Albert Windus, aged 50, his son, Ernest, aged 17, and Harold Hollowell, aged 18.

"A truck came down a hill on to the track and it seems the farmers were bewildered by the fog and did not see the trains just passing on a double track. One train hit the truck and knocked it onto the track where the other train passed over it, grinding the truck and its occupants into an unrecognizable mass. Tow hours later by means of hunting licenses carried by the men they were identified."

ASK MORE REVENUE FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 10.—Delegates to the Illinois constitutional convention directed a continuous fire of questions at President David I. Feimly of Illinois Normal School tonight to learn his ideas on the single tax theory. President Feimly appearing before the convention which met in committee of the whole today to hear a discussion of school problems, assured the delegates that he was a single tax advocate and believed the system should be put into effect gradually into this state. The questioning of President Feimly continued after he had concluded his address to the delegates. The eight o'clock session almost eleven o'clock. When the questioners finally assisted the program of speaking which had been arranged was completed with addresses by Robert C. Moore of Carlinville, secretary of the Illinois State Teachers' Federation and Miss Margaret Haley, representing the teachers' federation of Chicago. The program was completed shortly before midnight.

Thomas Kerriek of Bloomington, engaged in a spirited debate with President Feimly on the single tax proposition. Former Governor Joseph Pifer, delegate from Bloomington, William A. Wall of Mound City, Douglas Southernland of Chicago, William Scanlon of Peru and Charles B. T. Moore of Decatur also engaged the normal school president in discussion of his theories and their application to the revenue system of the state.

There must be more revenue for school purposes the Illinois constitutional convention delegates were informed today. Meeting in committee of the whole the convention heard school problems discussed by educators from all parts of the state. The convention was told that more money is needed to give adequate pay to the teachers, to build more schools, to increase the quality of education in sparsely settled communities and to meet the increased cost of operation of the schools.

While other problems that school revenue were discussed the majority of the speakers emphasized the necessity of better pay for teachers.

Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction began the discussion. He declared the state needs a great school fund from which it can contribute to the aid of schools in thinly populated communities.

Superintendent Blair was followed by a number of county superintendents including B. C. Moore of McLean county, August Maue of Will county, C. R. Briggs of Winnebago county and Edward A. Ellis of Kane county.

Peter A. Mortenson, superintendent of the Chicago schools, and J. C. Engleman, superintendent at Decatur, added their pleas for revision of the revenue system to permit better pay for teachers.

Other speakers were: Mrs. Ida Fursman, assistant principal of the Lynn School of Chicago, Mrs. Fannie Merwin, a teacher at Manito, and Walter Potts of East St. Louis, president of the Illinois Teachers' association.

HOUSTON ANNOUNCES NO FURTHER LOANS WILL BE MADE ALLIES

Believed to Indicate Adoption by Treasury to Defer
Interest Payments

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Announcement by Secretary Houston tonight that no further loans would be made to the allies was believed to indicate the adoption by the treasury of the policy favored by the debtor nations of deferring interest payments for the next three years or more. Under authority granted by congress to extend $10,000,000 credits to the allied nations, the treasury has made loans amounting to $9,659,334.649. Secretary Houston said that the remainder of the credits authorized would not be granted.

Treasury officials said that in view of the exchange situation and the unsettled economic condition of the European nations during the reconstruction period, it would seem advisable to permit them to postpone interest payments for at least three years. Then, it is believed, they would be in a position to meet their obligations.

With the interest on the loans computed at five per cent the total due the United States yearly is about $470,000,000, an enormous sum for the war weakened countries to pay at present. If interest is funded into long term obligations the interest on the payments thus deferred will amount to only $23,000,000 yearly, which could be paid and the credit of the debtor nations maintained.

America's chief debtors are Great Britain with $4,277,000,000; France with $3,047,974,777 and Italy with $1,621,338,986. Belgium's debt is $343,445,220 and Russia is charged with $187,729,750. Rumania, Serbia, Greece, Cuba, Czechoslovakia and Liberia are the other countries listed on the books of the treasury.

FIXES OKLAHOMA AND TEXAS BOUNDARY

(By The Associated Press)
ENID, Okla., March 10.—Judge Frank A. Youmans in federal district court here today decided in favor of the Judsonia Development company, consisting of Oklahoma men, in their suit asking for an injunction against the Sparks and other Texas claimants in the Red River oil land dispute, when he fixed the south bank of the river as the boundary line between Oklahoma and Texas. The decision affects property valued at $300,000,000 lying in the Red River Valley.

HOUSE REACHES AN AGREEMENT ON SIZE OF PEACE TIME ARMY

Pleas of "Little Army" Men Rejected — Proposal Includes 316,820 Men

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Pleas of "little army" men to reduce military expenses were rejected today by the house, which approved a peace time establishment of 299,000 enlisted men and 17,820 officers after rejecting three proposals for a smaller force. The decision the not final was reached by a three to one vote, leading supporters of the army reorganization bill to believe that it virtually settled the issue.

In addition to authorizing a regular army 100,000 stronger than provided by the national defense act of 1916, the house also accepted a lesson of the world war by adopting the principle of permitting the tactical organization of the army to be prescribed by the president instead of by law. Likewise, it approved of making a reserve corps of the air army to 100,000 men. He was beaten without a record vote.

After making a speedy getaway in outlining the future military policy the house engaged in long debate over details, indicating that the bill would not be passed before the end of the week.

LEADERS DELAY FINAL VOTE ON PEACE TREATY

Enter Further Compromise Negotiations on Article Ten

OUTCOME IS UNCERTAIN

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The peace treaty compromise negotiations entered a period of fevered uncertainty today as the time approached for final senate action on article ten.

Working desperately for an agreement between both sides of the chamber confounded the plans of their party leaders and threw the senate into such a tangle that it tacitly was agreed to delay a vote for several days in the hope that all elements might be more certain of their ground.

The hopes of the compromise advocates collapsed and were revived hourly as the day's negotiations proceeded in private conferences, while debate on the floor dragged on without apparent interest or effect. It was the treaty's irreconcilable Republican opponents who started the trouble by remonstrating in a militant way against the decision of their party leaders to assent to a modified draft of the Republican reservation to article ten. So effective were their representations that the leaders decided not to offer the new resolution at all.

This determination sent some of the mild reservation Republicans on the war path and produced confusion on the Democratic side, where senators had labored several days to line up votes for the Republican substitute. Caught in a cross fire from reservation Republicans and reservation Democrats the leaders withheld their final decision but indicated that they probably would present the substitute if assured of enough Democratic defections to adopt it.

Meantime disagreement among the Democrats became more pronounced, partly as a result of a meeting in the office of Senator Owen, Democrat, Oklahoma, at which a number of Democratic senators are understood to have expressed disapproval of the course of their party leaders and to have promised active support to the movement to break away from President Wilson and accept the best compromise they could get.

Some Republican advocates of compromise declared tonight that thirty two Democratic votes could be mustered for the article ten substitute and there were indications that enough Democratic defections to adopt it, one of the Republican mild reservationists might do so.

While virtually the entire membership was occupied with these negotiations the article ten reservation technically was taken up for debate in an almost deserted senate chamber.

But the irreconcilables were given chances that the unsettled situation would result in a standstill and they got the floor and kept it. Senators McCormick, Republican, Illinois and Poinsett, Republican, Washington, occupying the entire day with attacks on the treaty and on the recent utterances of President Wilson.

NO STATE ROAD BUILDING THIS YEAR

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 10.—There will be no contracts awarded for the state bond issue roads until prices are reduced it was decided today at a conference held by Frank I. Bennett, director of the department of public works and buildings with highway officials. Mr. Bennett said he would issue a statement later today regarding the 1920 road building program. The announcement, it is believed, will practically mean abandonment of the program of building 1,100 miles of hard roads this year.

STRONG FOR REDUCING HIGH PRICES

Richmond, Va., March 10.—"I am strong for reducing the high cost of living," Attorney General Palmer told the chamber of commerce here tonight, but if he has no hope of doing it by a reduction of wages, "I do not want wages reduced and I do not think it would be wise or proper for us ever to get to a lower level."

WARNS AGAINST BOND ISSUE TO GIVE RELIEF TO EX-SERVICE MEN

House G. O. P. Leaders Declare it Would Cause Panic and Higher Prices

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—A bond issue to pay adjusted compensation to former service men, Republican Leader Mondell of Wyoming told the house ways and means committee today would "engender a panic and send prices ballooning." He opened any relief legislation at this time on the ground that heavy additional taxes would be exacted in exchange for the relief adopted.

"I don't believe we can issue bonds," Mr. Mondell said. "If they were intended for investment they would threaten the specie basis of currency. A popular issue would have all the ill-effects of an investment issue, besides inflating currency."

"Extension of financial relief is utterly impossible unless the people are willing to stand heavy additional taxes. A consumption tax, always unpopular, is the only tax which could be collected from month to month, producing revenue continuously."

Representative Swope, Republican, Kentucky, urged adoption of a bill granting an extra year's pay to those in the service except those who served less than two months. He estimated such a plan would require an outlay of $1,300,000,000.

The cash payment plan of the American Legion for $50 for each month of service was endorsed by Major A. B. Critchfield infantry school, formerly of Akron, Ohio. Members of the committee challenged his statement that "former soldier will get what they want."

Representative Garner, Democrat, Texas, commented that "former soldiers, if they continue to be as well organized as at present, will get all their demands."

Replying to a question by Representative Kitchin, Democrat, North Carolina, as to when representatives of soldier organizations "may be expected to make another request for financial aid from congress," Major Critchfield replied:

"Nobody can tell. Any body of men which thinks it can get something out of the rest of the American people will try to get all they can."

PEACE CONFERENCE SPENDS BUSY DAY

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, March 10.—The peace conference spent the day in working out the details of military and naval plans in connection with Turkey, giving particular attention to Armenia. Admiral Beatty, Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war and others were called in to give their opinions. Premier Venizelos of Greece was present and insisted that the allies should take the sternest measures against the sultan.

It became known today that the military domination at Constantinople is likely to take the form of allied military control of certain Turkish governmental activities, among them probably the war department.

The conferees were careful to make clear that this does not mean the taking over of the Turkish government at the outset and would not in the future. Turkey shows an inclination to abide by the terms of the armistice and cease massacres.

SIMS BACKS UP HIS CRITICISMS WITH EVIDENCE

Says Navy Fell Down Completely During
Start of War

MESSAGES ARE READ

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Tearful Admiral Sims gave the senate naval investigating committee today what he asserted was indisputable evidence that the navy department fell down almost completely during the first six months of the war.

Numerous messages by the admiral to the navy department during the early days of America's participation in the conflict and other documents were offered as proof that despite the officers' urgent and reiterated requests that every available vessel be sent to the critical area of submarine activities, the department neither followed his recommendations nor informed him of its plans and policies. Six months after the United States entered the war the admiral said the department advised many of the policies he had urged from the first.

The lack of wholehearted American cooperation with the allies, he said, resulted in prolongation of the war until November 13, 1918, when it could have been ended in July. Needless sacrifice of 500,000 lives; expenditure of fifteen billion dollars which might have been saved; and gain of 2,500,000 tons of shipping, if the navy department had acted promptly, he asserted. The United States would have had a million instead of 300,000 soldiers in France by the time the Germans began the great drive on the western front in March 1918.

Explaining that his recommendations many times were made after conferences with the allied naval commanders the admiral said the failure of the department to keep him properly informed as to its plans and policies was a source of great embarrassment to him.

When he advised that the convoy system proposed by the British admiralty be put into immediate operation Admiral Sims said he received a cablegram from the British admiralty stating "that in regard to convoy I consider that American naval vessels having armed guards are safer when sailing independently."

Later adoption of the convoy, he said, indicated the wisdom of his recommendation.

The admiral said that in June 1917, he told the department the efforts then being made to curb the U-boats was not succeeding and the necessity again was presented of "sending all destroyers, tugs, yachts and other craft which can reach the critical area by themselves or be towed part way."

The department in reply, he said, stated that the department recognizes the necessity of sending all anti-submarine craft which can be spared from home waters into active European waters and when such craft become available "they will send them." He announced that it would "consider the question of supplying additional naval forces other than anti-submarine craft whenever the advisability of so doing is justified."

This Ad. Sims said convinced him that the department entirely misunderstood the situation and asked him to appeal to Ambassador Page for assistance.

The manager of Senator Newberry's campaign has had a nervous breakdown which precludes his giving further testimony just at this time. Let us hope that his attack will not necessitate a new hearing. This hope is based not only on the thought of the enormous expense which the inquiry is occasioning, but also with the hope that the public will be spared a re-reading of the volume of testimony already given.

MILD TEMPERED STRIKERS

Swift & Co., employees at Cleveland, who went on a strike must have been in a rather tractable state of mind, after all. It is said that they determined to return to work after listening to a sermon on the love of God and the need to return to his teachings. If this same remedy could only be applied to other industrial disputes the employing concerns of the country would without doubt have ministers and evangelists permanently attached to their list of employees.

In Decatur some street paving work is in prospect altho on one thoroughfare the estimated cost is $10 per lineal foot. There have been some protests from property owners but most of them seem to feel that notwithstanding the very high cost that the work should proceed.

Counting today there are just three more days in which you can figure out your income tax. If you are to escape fine your report must be in the hands of the revenue collector in Springfield by Monday, March 15. This figuring out of income is a troublesome matter but fortunately the blanks for this year are not nearly as complex as they have been in times past.

THE PRESIDENT ALONE PREVENTS

The inconsistency of President Wilson's position is pointed out editorially in many papers, while the president in his recent communication to Senator Hitchcock over article 10, declares that the U. S. is standing in the way of world peace by refusal to become a member of the league and that the league will not be effective without such membership, today he is really blocking the way which leads to such membership. Even if article 10 were stricken wholly from the league of nations program the purpose of the league would be in no way affected.

The efficacy of its work would depend upon the sincerity of the nations holding membership. World peace depends very largely upon that fact, anyhow. The president himself by his utter unwillingness to recede from his position, altho the great majority so greatly opposed to him, is himself assuming the responsibility of keeping this country from league membership.

More and more church organizations are adopting business principles in the management of their affairs. One of the Episcopal churches in St. Louis follows the plan of checking up any losses of membership that may occur. A regular system such as a manufacturing concern might have is maintained and when the officers notice any falling off in membership they immediately seek for the reason.

THE "FOR JACKSONVILLE ELECTION"

The Tuesday election was indeed a quiet event. There have been elections in Jacksonville where the number of votes was just as small, but there probably was never just such an election held here before. There was no contest in any of the four wards, and one Democrat and three Republicans were renominated altho two of these wards can be truly looked upon as fighting ground if the old political lines were considered.

It was a remarkable comment upon the state of the public mind, and an evidence of the desire to co-operate for the best interests of the city without special regard to political affiliations. One year of the present administration has practically been closed and thus far the officials have retained public confidence and have had the advantage of proceeding with their work practically without criticism.

It has been a year of some accomplishment and with much in the process of realization. No doubt it was the knowledge that the council has undertaken various projects and is undertaking others which the public approves that made it possible for this primary election to pass without contest.

"THE STOLEN KISS"

A sympathetic story of a girl's heart breaking struggle make love and life what she has dreamed them to be. She desires only the simplest form of freedom, but finds herself hedged about by the stern, sometimes cruel, restrictions of a Puritanical environment. Her happiness is in "make believe" and she persists, her spirit unbroken, through seventeen resisting years. Then even insistent fate tires of placing obstacles in her way, and she bursts out of the shadows into a glorious land of peace and sunshine and happiness!

Racked and broken down I am, and so long have I keered about my priceless diaphragm from its moorings is unscrewed; and my ribs are flapping loose, I have pains throughout my trunk, and I'm feeling like the dounce, if the dounce is feeling punk. Soon again I may be strong, but no cheerful thoughts I think; something else will come along that will put me on the blink. And the learned physician says, "You will soon be strong and hale," but he's talking through his teeth, and he ought to be in jail; for he knows diseases wait round the corner, just ahead, and they'll get me soon or late, and they'll ride me till I'm dead. In his happy frame of mind are the victims of the flu, when those convalescents find that some years of life are due. They should dance around a heap, but they mourn a ghastly lot, as old Rachel used to weep for children who were not. I am lying on my couch, singing songs of broken hearts, for I have the grisly groan that the dad-blamed flu imparts.

WEAVER FIVE SLIPS
DEFEAT TO KNIGHTS

Springfield Aggregation Wins Overtime Battle—Knights of Columbus Have Rook and Clancy out of Lineup

The basketball five of the Weaver Manufacturing company of Springfield defeated the Knights of Columbus at Liberty hall Wednesday night in an overtime battle by a score of 20 to 18.

The game was a hard fought battle thruout. The visitors had a strong team which was aided greatly by the addition of Jones, Illinois guard, who is a Springfield boy. Jones played a great game and his work was largely instrumental in the final victory for the Weavers.

When the first half closed the Weavers were leading by a score of 12 to 8. They maintained the lead until a few seconds before the final whistle when Froelich threw foul basket tying the score. It was a battle royal in the overtime period with Greenan finally putting one thru the hoop.

Froelich, Zell, and Rexroat, played a good offensive game for the Knights. Zell's floor work being especially good. Rook and Clancy were out of the lineup on account of sickness. Cain, Costello and Flynn did good work at guard.

For the Weaver, Green Levis Locke and Kreppert were the point scorers while Jones played a good defensive game. The score:

INCOME TAX ON SALE PROFITS

The big profits realized in 1919 by sales of dwellings, apartment houses, machinery, farm lands, and other property are subject to the income tax. Every citizen or resident who made such sales must now figure up the gains, as prescribed in Form 1040 or 1040-A, and consider this profit together with other gains and income in determining the liability for a return and a tax.

The sale of part of a farm or part of a parcel of land brings with it the responsibility of figuring equitably the gain realized. Consideration must be given, not only to acreage, but to the quality or desirability of the part sold, in its relation to the entire tract or farm.

Many persons disposed of stocks and bonds during 1919. Any gains or losses in such transactions affect the net income.

If the profits from sales, plus other income, received in 1919 by an unmarried person was $1,000 or more, a return is due. A married couple must file a return if profits from sales plus other income was $2,000 or more.

Returns and payments must reach the Collector of Internal Revenue by March 15, 1920.

STREET LIGHTING WAS CONFERENCE THEME

Residents of Various Streets Talked About Boulevard Systems — City Administration Wants to Follow Property Owners' Views.

Residents of a number of streets where there is some special interest in the proposal to install boulevard lighting systems under the public improvement act, held a conference at the court house last night. Through arrangement made by G. A. Sieber, a representative of the King Mfg. Co. of Chicago was here to present the matter. H. L. Dollahan, who is general manager, spoke for the company and explained the stereotypical views. By means of these views those in the company had the opportunity of noting the improvements in a number of other cities where boulevard lighting systems have been installed.

The opportunity was given for questions and the general discussion proved quite profitable. Mayor E. E. Crabtree presided and told of the plan to have boulevard light systems considered by property owners. He explained that the systems can be established and payment spread over ten years, just as is the case with street paving and other improvement work.

WILL BE VOLUNTARY MATTER

He made it plain too that it is not the purpose of the administration to enforce these lighting systems, but the desire is to have the property owners understand how much the systems will add to the appearance of the city and how the expense can be cared for. On streets where the majority are opposed to the improvement there is no intention to make them install the system. Or in other words this is to be a voluntary effort toward city improvement.

As the result of the conference last night Fletcher Hoyer was named general chairman and then street chairman were named as follows:

North Church street—LeRoy Craig, West College avenue—Henry Frisch, West State street—Dr. E. F. Baker, East State street—Albert C. Metcalf, North Main street—H. K. Snyder, South Main street—Dennis Schram. The chairman of these street committees were authorized to appoint their own assistants. A meeting of all these committees will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the city hall. At that time the definite figures will be available as to what the suggested improvements will cost and a plan will be adopted for ascertaining the views of property owners along the several streets.

Mr. Craig later announced as members of the North Church street committee: Howard Wannamaker, Benjamin Cohen, Charles DeSilva and W. H. McCarthy.

CLOTHIER PRESENTS WOOL STATEMENT

Gives Figures to Show Cost of Material on Suit of Clothes:

In the papers recently there has been considerable discussion about the cost of wool and of the cloth necessary for the making of a suit of clothes. A Jacksonville clothier recently called attention to a statement on this subject made by A. A. Bingham, who is head of one of the largest tailoring concerns in Chicago. This statement is given below and is said to reflect the views of clothiers and merchant tailors.

Referring to the article you mentioned, I believe the editor has carelessly misquoted Mr. Bingham. What Mr. Bingham stated, we believe, is that the raw wool necessary to make a 21-2 yards of cloth would cost about $2.25. This would be a minimum cost. Fine Montana wool was quoted January 20 at $2.00 to $2.15 per pound on a scoured basis. It would take at least 11-14 pounds of this wool to make 21-2 yards of 14-ounce worsted cloth, which is about the average heavy weight these days. This would represent a cost of $8.50 to $9.15 for wool alone.

Before this can be made into a cloth it has to be converted into yarn, meaning a shrinkage of 1 to 15 per cent. It then has to be spun into yarn. The weaver then takes it and weaves it into cloth and it is either dyed in the piece or in the yarn or wool, before the piece is woven. Every one of these operations means a shrinkage.

A fine comb of yarn made of this grade of wool is today selling as high as $5.00 a pound in the 14-ounce cloth. Enough yarn, therefore, to make 31-2 yards, would cost the weaver three and a half times this amount, namely $17.50. This, mind you, is for yarn alone. If a fancy worsted has to be made, there is an extra charge for the fancy colors going into the cloth. There is also the expense of dyeing either in the yarn or in the piece. There is also the weaving cost, the finishing cost and the weaver's profit, so that instead of the cost of material going into a suit of clothes being $2.25, it is considerably more than $17.50.

This, also, is only one item that goes into a suit of clothes. Trimming has advanced from 200 to 300 per cent. Silk has advanced from 200 to 300 per cent. Labor has advanced fully 125 per cent. We think, therefore, that if the writer of the article above mentioned, which we are criticizing, will go over these figures it will be very plain to him that the prices quoted for clothing these days is not excessive by any means.

WHITE HALL HORSES SHIPPED TO CANADA

Eight Head of Percherons Shipped to Canada From Gregory Farm—Will Be Shown at Summer Fairs in Saskatchewan.

White Hall, Ill., March 9.—At noon today there left over the Burlington railroad a car containing eight head of Carnot-bred Percheron mares and stallions destined to take Saskatchewan, Canada. They are the property of George T. Fraser of that place, and Mr. Tate has been here for a week to supervise the shipment of his valuable purchases from Gregory Farm, including four mares and four stallions, all show stuff, that Mr. Tate bought with the view of showing at the summer fairs in Canada against the best Percherons in the Dominion. All are sons and daughters of Carnot, grand champion of America and France, the $40,000 Percheron stallion at Gregory Farm.

This deal represents no less than $10,000, probably more, and it marks further strides by Canada in the pure-bred livestock development. A writer at Alberta, Canada, last year had the following to say: "The international boundary is only an imaginary geographic line, while the ties that unite the breeders of Canada and the United States are real. To the older and more settled country our western Canadian breeders have had recourse for much of the valuable foundation stock. In Percherons this has been notably true, especially during the last six months. Our Alberta breeders have not been content to bring back the good ones, nor even the very good; they went the limit and brought back the best. As proof of this broad statement, the importations speak for themselves.

"Philly, grand champion of the last international, was imported by Layzell & Parr of Calgary, Canada, sired by Carnot and sixth prize aged stallion at the international, was imported by B. H. Bunney, Dorothy, Alberta. Five mares and a stallion were imported by Robinson Brothers, Perinton, Alberta. All six were winners on the northwestern circuit, and included such outstanding individuals as Kabash, third prize aged mare at Chicago; Sara Belle, first in a large class at Chicago, and Pearl, first at four state fairs, champion at Iowa and Wisconsin. Keota Jalap completes the list, purchased by A. E. Davenport, Acme, Alberta. He was first in his class wherever shown last year, and stood at the top of the three-year-olds at Chicago.

"This is a formidable array, and all have been imported within the last few months. They represent the best of the greatest stables that have been in service in the United States during the past ten years, including Carnot, Jalap, Helix, Superior and Barnum. Built upon such foundations, the future of the Percheron in the Dominion is secure."

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS HAS DONE EXTENSIVE WORK ON THIS LINE

Over ten thousand samples of the soils of Illinois—each sample containing earth from the surface to forty inches in depth—have been collected by the Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of Illinois. Every one of these samples has been tested and classified by staff of the station. This testing and classification has been so thorough that it is possible to tell by a few moments examination just what crops can and cannot be raised in any particular part of the State. It is further possible to judge rather accurately what size of crop will be produced on any piece of land, weather conditions being normal.

But the most important part of this gigantic work is that the Experiment Station can tell you just what treatment should be given soils of various structures in order to improve fertility and increase production. By analysis it has been found just what each type of soil lacks, and therefore certain remedies can be prescribed.

The work of collecting and testing the soils of the State was begun several years ago and the work is still in progress. It is now hundreds of thousands of dollars, but is worth millions to the State—not only for the present but for future generations. The Illinois Soil Survey is said to be the most comprehensive in the world. In addition to the more than 10,000 of Illinois, some 3,000 soil samples from different parts of the world are in the possession of the University.

NEWSPRINT SHORTAGE CAUSES LOCAL WORRY

Journal Advertising Schedules Disturbed Because of Non-arrival of Car of Paper.

It is a matter of common knowledge that the shortage of print is occasioning newspaper publishers a great deal of worry, inconvenience and expense. The Journal is not escaping and because of present acute conditions asks for some leniency on the part of advertisers.

A car of print which should have been received in Jacksonville nearly two weeks ago has not yet left Livermore Falls, Maine. Severe storms there and a shortage of cars has practically tied up the business of the manufacturers. The Journal buys newspaper in eight, six and four page rolls and because of the non-arrival of this car has nothing but eight page paper in stock. This means that papers of less number of pages than usual must be printed until this car arrives.

For this reason merchants who have advertisements that appear on certain scheduled dates are asked to overlook the fact that the schedules are disturbed. The proper number of insertions will be given but some shifting about of days is necessary. Relief cannot be expected for about two weeks and the Journal is certain that the advertisers will co-operate with the management in bridging over this emergency in the best way possible. Even with this trouble, the Journal is more fortunate than papers in a number of cities. In some instances papers have been published minus all advertising, and in other cases there has been entire suspension for a number of days.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of "Pine" in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup.

Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant. You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

her assistant is Mrs. O. T. Hardesty. The social committee is Mrs. Carl Weber chairman, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. Ed. Young, and Mrs. Walter Mumford.

The following program was excellently enjoyed by the Aid.

Solo—Miss Young, of the Conservatory, assisted by Miss Duncan.

Reading—Miss Rice, of Illinois College.

Solo—Mrs. Jeanette Ketter, of Beardstown.

Violin Solo—Miss Coover, assisted by Miss Chance, of I. W. C.

Miss Ketter sang a French woman and her selections were rendered in French.

There was a good attendance and excellent reports from all the circles were read.

After the program and social hour the Aid enjoyed a light lunch.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEET AT HARTZ

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the Lafayette school was held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. Herbert Capps, the president presiding.

After a short business session those present were entertained by a violin solo by Miss Marjorie Black accompanied by Miss Bonnie Woods. Dr. Hardesty gave a delightful talk about France and her people.

At the close of the program the members enjoyed a social hour during which light refreshments were served by the social committee.

ENTERTAINED SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Members of the Faithful Followers Sunday school class of Central Christian church are planning for an Easter dinner. This question and others of interest to the class were discussed at a meeting held Tuesday night at the home of Miss Leona Imgrund on North Church street.

Mrs. George T. Douglas is the teacher of the class and these social occasions add very greatly to the interest.

Following the business session an hour was spent at various amusements, and excellent refreshments were served. The class membership includes Misses Edith Strandberg, Alma Smith, Katherine Gustafson, Pearl Moxon, Ethel Owens, Katherine Owens, Leona Imgrund, Mabel Ruyie, Helen Baker, Alva Staff and Hazel Hopkins.

ELLA EWING CIRCLE MET

At the session of the Ella Ewing Circle held at the home of Miss Ethel Shortridge Tuesday evening Mrs. Peck was the leader. Miss Ruth Carlson gave an interesting talk on Indian Villages and Miss Ella Pyatt presented "A Bird's Eye View of Our India Mission." The story of "A little child wife of India" was presented by Miss Florence Rice. A duet was sung by Misses Dewees and Finney and then came the scripture reading, passages from the 10th chapter of John being considered.

A contest between the Reds and Blues was recently concluded and the honor awarded to the side captained by Miss Ruth Carlson. The losers will give a party in honor of those who won. A social hour followed the program and was a time of genuine enjoyment.

I. C. ALUMNI FUND FACTS GIVEN

Eighth Annual Report Shows Total Collections of More Than $24,000—Twelve New Memorial Scholarships.

The eighth annual report of the board of directors of the Illinois College Alumni Association has recently come from the press and has been mailed to the alumni and former students of the college. As usual the report is a document of more than ordinary interest to the alumni and friends of the college.

During the eight years of its existence the Alumni Fund Association has collected a total of $24,390 of which $19,930 has been placed in the Alumni Fund Endowment and $2,453 in the regular college endowment. In addition to making these contributions to endowment funds the association has contributed during this period nearly $6,000 to the running expenses of the college. It is evident that the alumni fund association has become one of the most valuable assets of the college, for it not only has added considerably to the financial resources of the institution, but has served greatly to increase the interest and loyalty of the alumni body.

The report of the secretary shows that twelve additional memorial memberships have been established in the fund. They include the following: Edward B. Clapp, '75; Hazel Brown Bellatti, '06; and a partial membership for Percy Grierson Capps '08.

There are nine soldier memorials in honor of Elmer M. Eckard, '96; Arthur H. Hinman, '13; George F. Turt, '13; John M. Widenham, '13; Joseph P. Chamberlain, '18; Earl P. Sooy, '19; Fred L. Williams, '19; Charles Haines, W. A., and Leonard Young, W. A. These are the nine men from "Old Illinois" who made the supreme sacrifice during the war.

The members of Sigma Pi Literary Society are engaged in raising thirteen memorial memberships, one in memory of each of their founders. Over one half of this amount has already been raised. H. J. Dunbaugh '09 is chairman of this committee.

In the absence of Colonel Edward Capps '87, who was in Greece during the past year, Victor W. Nelson acted as chairman of the association.

POCAHONTAS CONFERS DEGREE

At its regular meeting Wednesday, Minnetonka council conferred the degree on one candidate. The council is making arrangements for a school of instruction to be held in the near future. At that time the Great Pocahontas will be present.

Mrs. W. P. Corrington and daughter, Miss Dovie, were among the Alexander residents who visited the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Basham of Alexander spent Wednesday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabtree will leave this morning for Lawton, Oklahoma to spend ten days at the home of Mrs. Crabtree's mother.

WILL BE MARRIED

IN MURRAYVILLE TODAY

The marriage of Miss Edna Sorrells of Murrayville and Quilford S. Branson of Dallas, Tex., will be solemnized in Murrayville this morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Short.

The marriage service will be performed by Rev. Mr. McCullom, formerly pastor of the Methodist church in Murrayville.

Miss Sorrells is a daughter of John Sorrells and has made her home for a number of years with the Short family. She took the training course at Passavant hospital and during the war time was in the U. S. nursing service at Camp Travis, Tex. It was at that time she met Mr. Branson, who is engaged in business in Dallas.

W. H. WEATHERFORD,

Sheriff and Ex-Officio Collector

From County Agent's Office

Our Morgan County Farm Adviser, Geo. B. Kendall, gave a very interesting story upon the above subject, how many poultry keepers will be able to get and apply the Hogan test, without being shown "how it's done," is a question. Having handled somewhere between five and six thousand head of fowls since last August and meeting with some most interesting facts pertaining to this culling work, with but one exception all cross or mongrel bred fowls handled proved poorer layers than such as are recognized as "Standard Bred," in Clinton County.

Working with the farm agent there, he notified his members by phone that we would be on a certain farm at a certain time, when we got there from ten to forty people had gathered in, the resident farmer would have from a dozen to a flock penned up and the demonstration would be given showing young and old, men and women what to cull from their flocks, such as had not laid, and would not lay enough eggs to justify their feeding them during the fall and winter, in this county we met a dairy farmer, who kept 350 S. C. White Leghorn hens he had the Hogan Book "The Call of the Hen" had selected his flock fed and housed them properly and realized four dollars per head in 1918. In Randolph County, we found a flock of 200 white leghorns in October and only found five hens laying, culling out seventy-five that had not been layers or would not lay eggs enough during the winter to justify their keep. These hens had ideal quarters for roosting and a fine scratch shed open to the south and judging by general surroundings had been properly fed and cared for, a most natural question: "Why this difference in these two flocks?" The explanation is, they were bred from poor laying stock, had molded in to new plumage, were pictures for size, form and fat, but not egg layers. In all flocks on farms and poultry yards are found individuals that are good layers, and some that are poor layers, recently I had the pleasure of handling two flocks, where the poorest indication of laying type was 150 eggs a number showing over 200 egg type this was in the yards of two fanciers, one on a farm the other in a town. These like many others, early began to realize that egg production must go with fine form and feathers. The culling process will revolutionize the poultry industry. The 200 egg type of hens are coming in to evidence more and more every year, as the poor layers are weeded out, and the males like their females selected by the profomanance for egg production of their dams. The simplified culling process by the Hogan system means to take out all hens with thick or very rigid pelvic bones, and no abdominal measurement, and those that are deep in abdominal measurement with thick pelvic bones, they are classed a beef or meat types. Poor housing, improper care and food is often the greatest cause of poor or indifferent egg yield, a proper scratching shed is one of the most essential features needed on most farms, a roosting place free from drafts and mites, green food in winter, clover or alfalfa leaves. Sprouted oats, a variety of grains, clean water grit and charcoal will make them sing, lay and respond in egg yield.

WALLIS

America's Foremost Tractor

Here is the Wallis' calendar

The first hint of spring finds the Wallis hard at work at the plowing. Because of its light weight and correct design the Wallis is able to operate under unusual soil conditions. So the plowing is done early, and large acreage is prepared.

Next comes discing, harrowing and planting. To make a perfect seed-bed, and plant it at exactly the right time is most important.

The Wallis is a wonder in the hayfield. Cutting, stacking, hauling, etc., are speedily done. More and better hay is the rule with the Wallis.

When green turns to gold and anxious eyes scan the skies for hail or frost, the Wallis whirls the binders through the harvest, saving precious time and more precious grain.

Then, swiftly spins the separator, Wallis-driven, pouring out its flood of golden grain.

And so the cycle runs—and the year is closed with more plowing, wood-cutting, silo filling—haulage work of every kind.

This is the yearly calendar of the Wallis—America's Foremost Tractor.

The Wallis is Twelve Years Old and Has Stood the Test of Time

Any one considering the purchase of a tractor should satisfy himself positively as to the working power of the machine offered him. It is true that much depends upon local conditions, but it has been proven repeatedly that under equal conditions the Wallis will do more and better work per day than any other tractor of equal rated power, and stand up under it. It is an inexpensive machine, an economical machine, the recognized standard light weight fast machine. Come to our school on Friday and Saturday and learn the facts regarding this great tractor.

WOMAN'S CLUB WILL HEAR DR. C. E. BLACK

Will Give Illustrated Lecture on Red Cross Work in Greece And Bulgaria—Has Much Information Gained From Observation.

A most interesting meeting of the Woman's Club is anticipated on Saturday afternoon March 13, when Dr. Carl E. Black, chief surgeon of the American Red Cross mission to Greece, with the rank of major will tell some of his experiences and show a large number of stereoscopic slides made from photographs taken by him in connection with his work.

Major Black was the first American officer of any rank to enter Bulgaria after the armistice was signed and spent weeks traveling from one end of the country to the other, searching for and shipping to their homes in Greece thousands of men, women and children who had been captured early in the war by the Bulgarian army and who had been kept at hard labor in complete slavery. Dr. Black will tell of the work of the Americans to help suffering humanity in Greece and the club members will be interested to know how their contributions to the Red Cross were used.

The club is fortunate in having this opportunity to hear Dr. Black.

The music of the afternoon will consist of a group of songs by Mrs. Gregory, followed by a social hour.

LABOR

MRS. JOHNSON'S FUNERAL HELD

Winchester Woman Buried Wednesday—Anton Obermeyer Returns to Chicago—Winchester News Notes.

Winchester, March 10.—Funeral services for Mrs. Jackson Johnson were held from the home Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. W. D. Morris, pastor of Baptist church. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends which served to show the high esteem in which the deceased was held in this community.

Music was furnished by Mrs. W. H. Kinson and Miss Martha Higgins with Mrs. M. A. Henderson as accompanist. The flowers were also cared for by the same ladies.

Burial was in Winchester cemetery, the bearers being, Thomas Webster, Guy Faul, William Moore, Charles W. Banes, Charles Townsend and Howard Buckley. Anna Elizabeth Miller was born on the old Miller homestead in the south part of Winchester, August 20, 1850 and passed away at her home here March 7, 1920. She was the daughter of Jacob and Angelina Miller and was one of a family of twelve children, six boys and six girls. Eight grew to maturity. Mrs. Johnson was the last survivor of the family.

In October 1877 she was united in marriage to Jackson Johnson. They were the parents of four children, Mrs. Pearl Trickey of Argenta, Ray, Clyde and Lynn. Clyde died March 2, 1917.

Except for a brief period spent in Little Rock, Ark., all her life was spent in Winchester. Early in life she united with the Baptist church. Later when her children began to attend the Presbyterian church she transferred membership to that church. Mrs. Johnson's life was one of service and she gave seven years of devotion to her invalid son, Clyde. She was always doing something for others and was especially devoted to her two grandchildren in whom she found much pleasure and joy. She will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.

Mrs. Leroy Pate, Misses Margaret Priest, Frances Wallace and Frances Coultas were Jacksonville visitors Wednesday going in Mrs. Pate's sedan.

Mrs. William Pate arrived in Winchester Wednesday morning from Chicago to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Brenzel. John Cole has been admitted to partnership in the firm of Overton Bros., dealers in automobile accessories.

Mrs. Richard Hopper of Jacksonville, and daughter, Mrs. E. M. Chrisman of Merritt, Mrs. Erick of St. Louis, Mrs. Charles Ross of Alsey were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jackson Johnson.

George Wallace who spent a part of the winter in Peoria has returned to Winchester and has taken a position in the William Southwell grocery store.

Anton Obermeyer left Wednesday evening for Chicago after having spent the past two weeks in Winchester with his parents and assisting in the care of his father, Peter Obermeyer who has been quite ill, but who is now improved.
